

Representation and protection of the Clients' interests with regard to their private matters is handled by a separate group of S&K Vertical's attorneys who provide legal support in personal and family matters, consultancy in taxation, investment, real estate, family and inheritance law, reputation, charity and patronage. Among the clients of S&K Vertical are the famous figures of art, sports, business, and members of their families who always receive high-quality legal assistance in Russia and abroad.

The achievements of our private clients practice are marked by Russian rankings (Pravo.ru 300 for 2010—2017), the partners of S&K Vertical are recognized as the leading lawyers in family and inheritance law (according to The Kommersant, 2017) and mentioned among the best lawyers in this area of practice (according to The Kommersant, 2017).

Professional experience:

- Divorce proceedings and disputes arising out of marriage contracts;
- Claims for the deprivation of parental rights and determination of paternity;
- Disputes regarding children and devised property, hereditary disputes and reconciliation of relatives;
- Issues of special judicial proceedings in federal courts;
- Issues of taxation of individuals and disputes with tax authorities, tax residence issues;
- Legal assistance to minors during their education abroad and interaction with educational institutions;
- Legal formalization of the acquisitions and use of real estate in Russia and abroad;
- Investments in projects and securities;
- Acquisition of art objects, their storage, transportation, and exhibition;
- Protection of honor, dignity, and business reputation;
- Cooperation with banks in obtaining loans;
- Charitable assistance to non-profitable organizations and foundations and targeted projects;
- Support and participation in cultural and social projects.