

The global interests of our clients require access to high-quality legal assistance anywhere in the World. As a rule, this includes representation in foreign and international courts, organization of cross-border business structures, transaction support in different jurisdictions, interaction with international financial institutions and national regulators of various states.

S&K Vertical's leading attorneys, in addition to their basic national diplomas, have degrees of the best European and American law schools and work closely with leading law firms around the World. S&K Vertical has a representative office in Beijing, China, and for more than 5 years is actively developing the Asian practice, providing legal support to leading Asian companies in Russia, and also protecting Russian clients in Asian markets. S&K Vertical's international cases have been repeatedly noted by Russian and international rankings (Legal 500, IFLR1000 and Pravo.ru 300).

Professional experience:

- Representation of the owner of an oil company with regard to the conversion of debt to a state bank and placement of shares on the Hong Kong Stock Exchange, the case involved litigation in Russia, Cyprus and England;
- Representation of a state corporation, the asset manager of a large bank of a CIS country, with respect to troubled assets located in the United States, Israel, the United Arab Emirates, Kazakhstan;
- Representation of an Internet company with respect to criminal law issues in the sphere of financial crimes in the territory of a European country, interaction with the national general prosecutor's office and organization of the judicial process;
- Representation of owners of real estate in the UAE, the organization of legal proceedings against the developer;
- Representation of the shareholder of a hotel complex in a European country, organization of legal proceedings as well as of criminal and civil law protection within the framework of a corporate conflict;
- Representation of a large Russian trading network in a dispute with Chinese suppliers in the matter of collecting damages for the delivery of a poor-quality product; the case included arbitration proceedings, recognition of the arbitration award in the Chinese court and its enforcement of the award in China;
- Representation of the shareholder of a Russian multi-profile holding company regarding the implementation of corporate rights arising out of the ownership of assets in Singapore, Cyprus, BVI within the framework of a corporate conflict;
- Advising a large Russian holding company as to the multi-jurisdictional corporate structure, attracting financing, developing legal model of trade relations and taxation.