

ALINA KHAMMATOVA

Head of projects, Attorney at Law

Specializes in bankruptcy, litigation, corporate law, legal support for disputes with antitrust and tax authorities.

Profile:

Alina Khammatova is in charge of Law Office's projects in the field of bankruptcy, financial investigations, corporate law, civil and arbitration proceedings related to bad debts. She has extensive experience of legal support of disputes with antitrust and tax authorities

In 2013, she graduated from the Law Faculty of the National Research University Higher School of Economics.

Professional experience:

- Representation of interests of a bank ranked among the top 10 Russia's largest banks in a dispute over debt collection under a bank guarantee with a total claim amount of 500 million rubles;
- Representation of interests of one of the largest research institutes of the North-Western Region in disputes with a state institution over state contracts (the total claim amount is 40 million rubles);
- Representation of interests of a Russian bank (top 15) in disputes with debtors over recovery of over 10 billion rubles, including legal support for bankruptcy proceedings involving a borrower and sureties, criminal prosecution of officials, financial investigation, imposing subsidiary liability on members of the board of directors of the debtor, disputes over bank guarantees, issues of searching assets in Russia and abroad;
- Legal support for bankruptcy proceedings involving physical entities;
- Participation in settlement of a conflict with one of major hydrocarbon producers in Russia;
- Legal representation in disputes with tax authorities.